General

1 Prevalence of Constitution

- (1) QUTLS By-Laws are made in accordance with the Constitution of QUT Law Society Inc. ("Constitution") for the internal management of the QUTLS.
- (2) Where an inconsistency exists between the Constitution and these QUTLS By-Laws, the Constitution prevails to the extent of the inconsistency.
- (3) Any QUTLS By-Law passed by the Executive shall be presumed to add to these By-Laws unless a contrary intention is expressed.

2 Amendment of QUTLS By-laws

- (1) Amendment of QUTLS By-Laws shall take place by way of simple majority of the Executive in accordance with the Constitution.

3 Reproduction of QUTLS By-Laws

- (1) The QUTLS Membership Agreement, QUTLS Code of Conduct, QUTLS Events Agreement, QUTLS Working with Children Policy, QUTLS Privacy Policy and QUTLS Grievance Policy may be reproduced separately by QUTLS as an individual QUTLS By-Law provided their reproduced form is identical to the original form in the QUTLS By-Laws.

Role Descriptions & Duties of the Committee

Management Committee means the President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer

Executive means Members of the Management Committee and Directors.

Committee means the Executive and all Officers.

First Nations means Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander.

DUTIES OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

4 Responsibilities of the Management Committee

Members of the Management Committee must:

- (a) Take all reasonable steps to ensure that QUTLS complies with the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 (Qld), the Associations Incorporation Regulation 1999 (Qld), QUTLS' Constitution and all other governing rules.
- (b) Exercise their power and duties in good faith, with reasonable care and diligence, for a proper purpose.
- (c) Advise the committee of any conflict that may arise between their own interests and the interests of QUTLS, including possible financial gain.

- (i) In such a case, the Member will relinquish their right to vote on and otherwise participate in such a matter.
- (d) Maintain full and complete confidentiality of the QUTLS QPay Login Details, the QUTLS Office Code and the QUTLS Register of Members, now and in future.
 - (i) Management Committee Members must only use this information for the purposes provided to them and which are necessary for the activities of QUTLS.
 - (ii) Management Committee Members are strictly prohibited from using this information for personal use, advantage or otherwise.
- (e) Attend Management Committee meetings, Executive meetings and QUTLS events where it is possible to do so.
- (f) Ensure all vacant positions are filled as soon as is practicable.
- (g) Prepare a comprehensive handover package for the next Management Committee Member to ensure a smooth transition between terms.

5 Duties of the President

- (1) The President's role is to work with the Vice President to manage the affairs of the QUTLS. The President is primarily responsible for strategic direction and oversight. This includes setting goals for the organisation and working with the Committee to achieve these goals.
- (2) Generally, the President shall:
 - (a) Promote QUTLS and its objects;
 - (b) Represent the interests of Members;
 - (c) Host all QUTLS events;
 - (d) Oversee a handover meeting at the end of the year with all incoming and outgoing Management Committee and Executive Members;
 - (e) Develop internal management procedures in consultation with the Executive Committee; and
 - (f) Perform other functions as may be required from time to time.
- (3) In relation to strategic direction and leadership, the President shall:
 - (a) Coordinate and oversee strategic governance of QUTLS;
 - (b) Chair all General Meetings of QUTLS;
 - (c) Assist or arrange assistance for any other Member of the Executive who may require it; and
 - (d) Represent QUTLS on relevant boards, committees or workgroups that may be convened by QUT, ALSA or other representative bodies from time to time.

6 Duties of the Vice President

- (1) The Vice President's role is to work with the President to manage the affairs of QUTLS. The Vice President is primarily responsible for overseeing day-to-day operations. This includes providing guidance and leadership to the Executive Committee to ensure the Society runs smoothly.

(2) Generally, the Vice President shall:

- (a) Promote QUTLS and its objects;
- (b) Perform other functions as may be required from time to time;
- (c) Perform any duty of the President where the President is unable to perform their duties.

(3) In relation to strategic direction and leadership, the Vice President shall:

- (a) Work with the President to provide direction, leadership and guidance;
- (b) Coordinate and oversee all activities of QUTLS;
- (c) Attend all General, Management Committee, Executive and Full Committee meetings of QUTLS;
- (d) Attend, where necessary, meetings of portfolio and sub-committee teams;
- (e) Oversee and approve all events, publications and activities; and
- (f) Assist or arrange assistance for any other Executive or Non-Executive Committee Member who may require it.

7 Duties of the Secretary

(1) The Secretary is primarily responsible for ensuring all legal, regulatory and constitutional obligations are met in running QUTLS.

(2) The Secretary will be required to draft or amend QUTLS' legal documents, including the Constitution and these QUTLS By-Laws.

(3) In addition to ensuring compliance with reporting obligations, the Secretary shall support the President in strategic decision-making.

(4) Generally, the Secretary shall:

- (a) Report to the Management Committee;
- (b) Provide leadership and guidance to the Administrative Officers;
- (c) Take all reasonable steps to ensure that QUTLS complies with the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 (Qld), the Associations Incorporation Regulation 1999 (Qld), QUTLS' Constitution, QUTLS By-Laws and all other governing rules;
- (d) In consultation with the Vice President, provide pastoral support for Committee Members and deal with any internal disputes;
- (e) Maintain current and accurate business records and documentation, maintaining secure digital records wherever possible;
- (f) Issue all Committee Members with an information pack consisting of current versions of the Constitution, QUTLS By-Laws, contact details of all Committee Members and other necessary materials upon the commencement of the term;
- (g) Be fully acquainted with and, where needed, provide advice to Committee Members regarding, legal, regulatory and constitutional

- obligations;
- (h) In consultation with the President, schedule and coordinate meetings, ensuring compliance with all legal, regulatory and constitutional obligations, including giving notice;
 - (i) Prepare a comprehensive handover package for the next Secretary to ensure a smooth transition between terms; and
 - (j) Perform other functions as may be required from time to time.
- (5) In relation to the Australian Law Students' Association Conference, the Secretary shall:
- (a) In consultation with the Executive, coordinate all registration and flights for Delegates, budgets, and selection of the delegates and/or competitors for the ALSA Conference;
 - (b) Consult with the Executive in respect of all ALSA-related matters;
 - (c) In consultation with the President and Vice President, be responsible for all correspondence with ALSA and compliance with ALSA directions and requests; and
 - (d) This does not necessarily require the Secretary to attend the ALSA conference.

12. You agree to reimburse or compensate QUTLS for any damage, liability, claim and loss (including loss specified at 11.) arising from you or your conduct at a QUTLS Event.
13. You agree and understand that if you have any complaint arising from a QUTLS Event you must submit the complaint, in writing, to the Secretary of QUTLS (secretary@qutlawsociety.com) as soon as reasonably practicable.

QUTLS Working with Children Policy

1 Status

- (1) This policy is primarily established for the purposes of any activity involving working with children, as assisted or organised by QUTLS, which require the use of blue cards in Queensland.
- (2) However, this policy will apply to other activities organised by QUTLS which require the use of blue cards in Queensland.
- (3) This policy only relates to individuals employed, whether voluntarily or for financial gain, in 'regulated employment' as defined by Schedule 1, Part 1 of the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (Qld).
- (4) This policy is a QUTLS By-Law and may be reproduced by QUTLS separate to the QUTLS By- Laws provided the reproduction is identical.

2 Statement Of Commitment

- (1) QUTLS is committed to the safety and wellbeing of all children and young people, including those who use our services. Our employees in regulated employment will treat them with respect and understanding and address their concerns at all times. QUTLS will endeavour to provide a safe and supportive environment for children and young people through:
 - (a) Blue card checks for all employees in regulated employment;
 - (b) A strictly enforced code of conduct for all employees in regulated employment;
 - (c) Clear dispute resolution mechanisms; and
 - (d) A publicly available risk management policy.
- (2) In accordance with the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000 (Qld), QUTLS is required to have a written Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy to protect the children and young people in QUTLS from harm. The strategy will help ensure QUTLS is a safe and supportive service environment for children and young people by identifying and minimising risks. Screening employees in regulated employment through the blue card system is part of the strategy.
- (3) For the sake of clarity, this QUTLS Working with Children Policy is the Child and Youth Risk Management Strategy of QUTLS.

3 Role and Duties of the Moot Club Portfolio

- (1) Any officer, or director of a portfolio, undertaking any activity involving working with children will share the responsibilities and duties of the Secretary in this policy in organising that activity.
- (2) The relevant director and officers involved in organising the activity shall have a responsibility to ensure the activity is compliant with this policy.
- (3) Outside of the relevant activity, the relevant directors and officers do not have a role or duty related to this policy.

4 Selection Of Employees in Regulated Employment

- (1) QUTLS has in place an effective set of policies and procedures for selecting employees in regulated employment. These processes ensure that QUTLS creates a safe and supportive environment for children and young people.
- (2) To become an employee in regulated employment for QUTLS, individuals must be willing to work professionally and appropriately with children. As part of our processes, our Secretary may question a potential employee in regulated employment to check their appropriateness for working with children. QUTLS also looks to experience to ensure that it responsibly manages the tasks of those employees in regulated employment.
- (3) Finally, all our employees in regulated employment must undergo Working Safe With Children Checks through the Queensland Government's Public Safety Business Agency's Blue Card Services.

5 Breaches Of The Code Of Conduct

- (1) A breach is any action or inaction by any Member of QUTLS, including children and young people, that fails to comply with any part of the strategy including the Code of Conduct. The following will occur if there is an allegation of a breach:
 - (a) The Management Committee shall appoint a welfare Ombudsman to oversee the process and advise the Management Committee;
 - (b) All people concerned will be advised of the process by the Ombudsman;
 - (c) All people concerned will be able to provide their version of events to the Ombudsman;
 - (d) The details of the breach, including the versions of all parties and the outcome, will be recorded;
 - (e) The Ombudsman will report to the Management Committee with recommendations for courses of action the Management Committee should take;
 - (f) The Management Committee will discuss between themselves and with the Ombudsman the nature of the events.
 - (g) An appropriate outcome will be decided by the Management Committee.
- (2) All matters discussed in an investigation will be confidential.
- (3) Depending on the nature of the breach, outcomes may include:
 - (a) Emphasising the relevant component of the Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy, for example, the code of conduct;
 - (b) Providing closer supervision;
 - (c) Further education and training;
 - (d) Mediating between those involved in the incident (where appropriate); (e) Disciplinary procedures if necessary; or
 - (e) Reviewing current policies and procedures and developing new policies and procedures if necessary.

6 Handling Disclosures And Suspicions of Harm

- (1) Definitions
 - (a) Harm is defined under the Child Protection Act 1999 (Qld) as “any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child’s physical, psychological or emotional wellbeing. For harm to be significant, the detrimental effect on the child’s wellbeing must be substantial or serious, more than transitory and must be demonstrable in the child’s presentation, functioning or behaviour”. Suspicion of harm occurs when an individual is concerned by significant changes in behaviour or the presence of new unexplained and suspicious injuries.
 - (b) Harm may be categorised into the following types:
 - (i) Physical abuse, for example, beating, shaking, burning, biting, causing bruise or fractures by inappropriate discipline, giving children alcohol, drugs or inappropriate medication;
 - (ii) Emotional or psychological abuse, for example, constant yelling, insults, swearing, criticism, bullying, not giving children positive support and encouragement;
 - (iii) Neglect, for example, not giving children sufficient food, clothing, enough sleep, hygiene, or medical care; and
 - (iv) Sexual abuse or exploitation, for example, sexual jokes or touching, exposing children to sexual acts or pornography or having sexual intercourse with a child or young person under 16 years of age (even if the child appears to have consented).
- (2) A breach of the Child and Youth Risk Management Policy is any action or inaction by any member of QUTLS, including children and young people, that fails to comply with any part of QUTLS’s Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy. However, a breach that results in significant harm to a child or young person as required by law will be considered in terms of an allegation or suspicion of harm in the first instance.

7 Procedures To Minimise Harm to Children And Young People

- (1) QUTLS works to minimise harm to children and young people by acting in a manner that supports their interests and wellbeing, by:

- (a) Making sure that children know that it is their right to feel safe at all times;
- (b) Teaching them about acceptable and unacceptable behaviour in general;
- (c) Letting them know who is and who is not an employee in regulated employment in QUTLS;
- (d) Making sure they are safe by monitoring their activities and ensuring their environment meets all safety requirements;
- (e) Taking anything a child or young person says seriously and following up their concerns;
- (f) Letting them know there is no secret too awful, no story too terrible, that they cannot share with someone they trust;
- (g) Teaching them about appropriate and inappropriate contact in a manner appropriate to their age and level of understanding;
- (h) Teaching children and young people to say 'no' to anything that makes them feel unsafe;
- (i) Encouraging them to tell staff of any suspicious activities or people; and
- (j) Listening to children and young people and letting them know that staff are available for them if they have any concerns.

8 Training Our Employees In Regulated Employment To Handle Disclosures And Suspicions Of Harm

- (1) This policy applies to all QUTLS employees in regulated employment which includes the Management Committee when they are engaged in activities that are regulated. QUTLS employees in regulated employment are aware of what to look for in relation to harm and handling of disclosures or suspicions of harm.
- (2) Regarding documenting a suspicion of harm, if our employees in regulated employment have concerns about the safety of a child, they will record concerns in a non-judgmental and accurate manner as soon as possible. If a parent explains a noticeable mark on a child, they will record their observations as well as accurate details of the conversation. If they see unsafe or harmful actions towards a child in QUTLS's care, they are instructed to intervene immediately, provided it is safe to do so. If it is unsafe, they will call the police for assistance.
- (3) QUTLS employees in regulated employment are instructed as follows when they receive a disclosure of harm:
 - (a) Remain calm and find a private place to talk;
 - (b) Don't promise that you will keep a secret - tell them they have done the right thing in telling you but that you will need to tell someone who can help keep them safe;
 - (c) Only ask enough questions to confirm the need to report the matter; probing questions could cause distress, confusion and interfere with any later inquiries, and
 - (d) Do not attempt to conduct an investigation or mediate an outcome between the parties involved.

9 How To Submit A Disclosure Or Suspicion Of Harm

- (1) It is QUTLS policy that any instance be reported to the Secretary of QUTLS by telephone or email and immediately to a Director in charge of any event that QUTLS runs.
- (2) An individual who reports an incident will be required to complete an incident report form which includes:
 - (a) Time, date and place of the disclosure;
 - (b) 'Word for word' what happened and what was said, including anything the individual said and any actions that have been taken; and
 - (c) Date of report and signature.
- (3) At this stage, QUTLS will undertake a full, confidential investigation. This may include the consultation of the Queensland Police or Department of Communities, Child Safety and Disability Services for guidance. Depending on the outcome of that investigation, QUTLS may or may not report the incident to the Queensland Police.
- (4) Regardless of the outcome of the investigation, QUTLS will direct affected persons to appropriate support and counselling services. QUTLS will also review all policies and procedures relating to the handling of disclosures or suspicions of harm after an incident has occurred.

10 Compliance With Queensland Screening Requirements

- (1) The Secretary is responsible for managing blue cards within QUTLS. To meet government requirements, QUTLS keeps a blue card registry which contains the blue card information of all of our employees in regulated employment. All of QUTLS's employees in regulated employment are confirmed as holding a valid blue card through a government confirmation.
- (2) QUTLS warns our employees in regulated employment that it is an offence for a 'disqualified person' to sign a blue card application or renewal form. A person is disqualified if they:
 - (a) have been convicted of a 'disqualifying offence'; or
 - (b) Are a 'reportable offender' with current reporting obligations under the Child Protection (Offender Reporting) Act 2004 (Qld); or
 - (c) Are subject to an offender prohibition order under the Child Protection (Offender Prohibition Order) Act 2008 (Qld); or
 - (d) Are subject to a sexual offender order under the Dangerous Prisoners (Sexual Offenders) Act 2003 (Qld); or
 - (e) Are subject to a disqualification order from a court prohibiting them from applying for or holding a blue card (see Blue Card Services website for further details of all the above).

11 Annual Review

- (1) QUTLS reviews the Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy annually. QUTLS invites any interested party to contact QUTLS if they have any information that may be useful for the review. The review considers:
 - (a) Whether QUTLS's policies and procedures were followed;
 - (b) Whether any incidents relating to children and young people's risk management issues occurred;
 - (c) The actual process used to manage any incidents;
 - (d) The effectiveness of QUTLS' policies and procedures in preventing or minimising harm to children and young people; and
 - (e) The content and frequency of training in relation to QUTLS' Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy.

12 Strategies For Communication And Support

- (1) This Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy is available publicly to ensure that all relevant stakeholders have access to it.

13 Concerns With This Strategy

- (1) To improve our policies over time, QUTLS is readily contactable for any issues relating to our Child And Youth Risk Management Strategy and processes. Any issues with our policy will be dealt with professionally and with the greatest priority

QUTLS Privacy Policy

QUT Law Society Inc. (QUTLS) is committed to protecting the personal and sensitive information it collects from all individuals, whether they are Members, non-Members or otherwise. QUTLS must comply with the National Privacy Principles in Schedule 3 of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and this will be reflected in the way QUTLS collects, retains, uses and destroys information.

This QUTLS Privacy Policy applies to all personal information collected by QUTLS or provided by individuals. This QUTLS Privacy Policy represents a statement of compliance with the law and explains how QUTLS will manage personal information collected from all individuals.

1 How to contact QUTLS about privacy

Privacy is very important to QUTLS. In advocating for law students we also advocate for lawful, responsible and transparent collection of information. For that reason, please read this QUTLS Privacy Policy carefully and contact us if you have any questions.

2 Confidentiality

- (1) All QUTLS Committee Members may, in their dealings with QUTLS, be required to access, use or collect sensitive or personal information.
- (2) All QUTLS Committee Members must only access, use or collect sensitive or personal information for the purposes provided to them and which are necessary for the activities of QUTLS.
- (3) All QUTLS Committee Members are strictly prohibited from using this information for personal use, advantage or otherwise.

3 Collection

- (1) QUTLS will not collect personal information unless the information is necessary for one or more of its functions or activities. These activities include but are not limited to:
 - (a) Applications and updates made for QUT's Student Clubs and Project (SCAP) Grants; and
 - (b) Ticketed events, merchandise and L Cards;
 - (c) Keeping a register of Members in compliance with the QUTLS Constitution and the Associations Incorporation Act 1981 (Qld).
- (2) QUTLS will not collect sensitive information about an individual unless:
 - (a) The individual has consented; or
 - (b) The collection is required by law; or
 - (c) The collection is necessary to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of any individual;
- (3) The following information collected by QUTLS includes, but is not limited to:
 - (a) Your full name;
 - (b) Your student identification number;
 - (c) Your email address;
 - (d) Your phone number;
 - (e) Whether you are a QUT Law student or not; and
 - (f) Whether you are an international student.

4 Use and Disclosure

- (1) QUTLS will not use or disclose personal information about an individual for a purpose (the "secondary purpose") other than the primary purpose of collection unless:
 - (a) Both of the following apply:
 - (i) The secondary purpose is related to the primary purpose of collection; and
 - (ii) The individual would reasonably expect QUTLS to use or disclose the information for the secondary purpose';
 - (b) The individual has consented to the use or disclosure;
 - (c) If the information is not sensitive information and the secondary purpose relates to direct marketing:
 - (i) It is impractical for QUTLS to seek the individual's consent before that particular use; and
 - (ii) QUTLS will not charge the individual for giving effect to a request not to receive direct marketing communications; and

- (iii) The individual has not made a request to QUTLS not to receive direct marketing communications; and
 - (iv) In each direct marketing communication with the individual QUTLS draws to the individual's attention or prominently displays a notice, that he or she may express a wish not to receive any further direct marketing communications; and
 - (v) Each written direct marketing communication by QUTLS with the individual (up to and including the communication that involves the use) sets out QUTLS' business address and telephone number and, if the communication with the individual is made by fax, telex or other electronic means, a number or address at which QUTLS can be directly contacted electronically;
- (d) QUTLS reasonably believes that the use or disclosure is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious and imminent threat to an individual's life, health or safety;
 - (e) QUTLS has reason to suspect that unlawful activity has been, is being or may be engaged in, and uses or discloses the personal information as a necessary part of its investigation of the matter or in reporting its concerns to relevant persons or authorities; or
 - (f) The use or disclosure is required or authorised by or under law.

5 Storage and Security

- (1) QUTLS will store all information in a secure form accessible only by the QUTLS, QUT SCAP Grant staff, authorised event staff, medical practitioners, and legal authorities as appropriate.
- (2) QUTLS will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse, loss and unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- (3) Where this stored information is compromised or subject to a Data Breach, QUTLS will follow a Data Breach response plan which will, where appropriate, execute one or more steps in the following order, as recommended by the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner:
 - (a) Contain the Data Breach;
 - (b) Assess the Data Breach and its risks;
 - (c) Consider whether or not to notify individuals of a suspected Data Breach; and
 - (d) Review the data breach incident and develop a strategy to prevent such an incident from occurring in the future.
- (4) Data Breach refers to where personal information has been subject to unauthorised access or disclosure, or is lost. This may occur by malicious action (by an external or insider party), human error or a failure in information handling or security systems. Examples of data breaches include:
 - (a) Loss or theft of physical devices or paper records that contain personal information;
 - (b) Unauthorised access to personal information by a QUTLS Committee Member or other person;
 - (c) Inadvertent disclosure of personal information due to human error; or
 - (d) Disclosure of an individual's personal information to a scammer, as a result of inadequate identity verification procedures.

6 Accessing Information

- (1) All records pertaining to welfare, including reports of medical emergencies, incident reports, and other sensitive records, but not risk management plans, shall not be accessed except by:
 - (a) The QUTLS Committee;
 - (b) QUT SCAP Grant Staff;
 - (c) Any person mentioned in such a record (and/or their parents/guardians if they are a minor), with the names of all other persons redacted in the excerpt that person receives;
 - (d) To the police and other authorities upon legitimate request; and
 - (e) Members not otherwise entitled to access them, if and only if the information has had all personally identifiable content redacted and has been included by a member of the Management Committee in a formal report.
- (2) If QUT SCAP Grant Staff requests a copy of the Register of members, the Secretary must only provide a copy of the names and student identification numbers, and remove all other details that may appear in that Register.

- (3) All police checks, references, and working with children check records shall be held only by QUTLS. Only Members of the QUTLS Committee may access such records in the course of their duties.

7 Destruction of Information

- (1) QUTLS will destroy this information (except information included in an incident report) when the purpose for which it is requested or collected concludes.
- (2) It shall be the responsibility of the Secretary to check that this information has been destroyed.

8 Providing Personal Information to an Individual or Member

- (1) If QUTLS holds personal information about an individual, it must provide the individual with access to the information on request by the individual or, in the case of a child, their parent and/or guardian, except to the extent that:
 - (a) Providing access would pose a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of any individual; or
 - (b) Providing access would have an unreasonable impact upon the privacy of other individuals; or
 - (c) The request for access is frivolous or vexatious; or
 - (d) The information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings between QUTLS and the individual, and the information would not be accessible by the process of discovery in those proceedings; or
 - (e) Providing access would reveal the intentions of QUTLS in relation to negotiations with the individual in such a way as to prejudice those negotiations; or
 - (f) Providing access would be unlawful; or
 - (g) Denying access is required or authorised by or under law; or
 - (h) Providing access would be likely to prejudice an investigation of possible unlawful activity; or
 - (i) Providing access would be likely to prejudice the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution or punishment of criminal offences, breaches of a law imposing a penalty or sanction or breaches of a prescribed law; or
 - (j) An enforcement body performing a lawful security function asks the QUTLS not to provide access to the information on the basis that providing access would be likely to cause damage to the security of Australia.
- (2) If a Member requests a copy of the Register of Members, the Secretary must only provide a copy of the names of the Members and remove all other details that may appear in that Register.
- (3) QUTLS will provide a copy of this section to any individual upon request.

9 Complaints Procedure

- (1) Individuals who have a complaint about this QUTLS Privacy Policy or believe QUTLS is in breach of the Australian Privacy Principles, may contact us on the details set out above.
- (2) We aim to process complaints within a reasonable time.
- (3) If you are unsatisfied with the response of QUTLS, you may refer the matter to the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner.

QUTLS Grievance Policy

1 Context

- (a) The QUT Law Society Incorporated (QUTLS) is committed to ensuring a healthy and safe environment free from discrimination, sexual harassment and bullying, in which all Volunteers and Members are treated with dignity, courtesy and respect.
- (b) This policy should be read in conjunction with the:
 - (i) Constitution of QUT Law Society Inc.; and
 - (ii) The By-Laws of QUT Law Society Inc.

2 Purpose

- (a) The purpose of this Policy is to:
 - (i) create an environment which is free from discrimination, sexual harassment and bullying, in which all Volunteers and Members are treated with dignity, courtesy and respect;
 - (ii) promote appropriate standards of conduct;
 - (iii) establish a system for treating all complaints in a sensitive, fair, timely and confidential manner; and
 - (iv) ensure protection from any victimisation or reprisals.

3 Application

This Policy applies to all QUTLS Volunteers and Members engaged in any activity or context which involves the QUTLS.

4 Policy

- (a) QUTLS does not tolerate unlawful Discrimination, Vilification, Sexual Harassment or Bullying.
- (b) All reports of Discrimination, Vilification, Sexual Harassment or Bullying will be treated seriously and investigated promptly, fairly and impartially.
- (c) A person making a complaint and/or who is a witness to Discrimination, Vilification, Sexual Harassment or Bullying must not be victimised.

5 Discrimination

- (a) QUTLS treats all Volunteers and Members equally, without regard to race, age, sex, marital status or any other protected attribute.
- (b) Volunteers are valued according to how well they perform their duties and their ability and enthusiasm in maintaining the expected standards of behaviour and service. (c) Under Federal and State anti-discrimination laws, discrimination against Volunteers and Members, on the basis of any of the following Attributes is against the law:
 - (i) race;
 - (ii) gender;
 - (iii) age;
 - (iv) nationality;
 - (v) religious belief or religious activity;
 - (vi) disability or impairment;
 - (vii) a medical record;
 - (viii) political conviction or activity;
 - (ix) an irrelevant criminal record;
 - (x) lawful sexual activity;
 - (xi) gender identity;
 - (xii) sexual orientation;
 - (xiii) sexuality;
 - (xiv) intersex status;
 - (xv) family responsibilities;
 - (xvi) pregnancy;
 - (xvii) relationship or marriage status (i.e. whether someone is married or not); (xviii) breastfeeding;

- (xix) parental status (i.e. whether someone has children or not);
 - (xx) carer's status;
 - (xxi) social origin; or
 - (xxii) association with someone who has one or more of these Attributes. 35
- (d) Discrimination can be unlawful even if the conduct is unintentional or the person is not aware that the conduct is unlawful.
- (e) The person's motive for the discriminatory conduct is also irrelevant.
- (f) There are two types of unlawful discrimination: direct and indirect.
- (g) Direct discrimination occurs if a person treats, or proposes to treat, a person with an Attribute (or perceived Attribute) less favourably than that person would treat a person without that Attribute in circumstances which are not materially different. For example, refusing to appoint a person to a Volunteer role because they are of a particular nationality.
- (h) Indirect discrimination occurs where a person imposes, or proposes to impose, a requirement, condition or practice which:
- (i) A person with an Attribute does not or is not able to comply;
 - (ii) With which a higher proportion of people without the Attribute comply or are able to comply; and
 - (iii) that is not reasonable.,

For example, an organisation that regularly holds meetings in a building without wheelchair access may be indirectly discriminating against a member with an impairment that limits or prevents their use of stairs.

- (i) Discrimination may involve (without limitation):
- (i) offensive 'jokes' or comments about another worker's racial or ethnic background, sex, sexual preference, age, disability or physical appearance;
 - (ii) display of pictures, computer graphics or posters which are offensive or derogatory;
 - (iii) expressing negative stereotypes of particular groups;
 - (iv) using stereotypes or assumptions to guide decision-making about a Volunteer; or
 - (v) undermining a person's authority or volunteer performance because you dislike one of their personal characteristics which is related to an Attribute.

6 Vilification

- (a) Vilification is a public act that incites others to hate or to have serious contempt for, or to severely ridicule, a person or group of people because of their race, religion, sexuality or gender identity.
- (b) It may also be a criminal offence to incite racial or religious hatred of others by threatening physical harm towards a person or their property.
- (c) Vilification may include (without limitation):
- (i) hate graffiti in public places;
 - (ii) public speeches that incite hatred;
 - (iii) public abuse or remarks in the media that incite others to hate people because of their race, religion, sexuality or gender identity;
 - (iv) wearing badges or clothing with slogans that incite hatred;
 - (v) internet sites with pictures or words that incite hatred;
 - (vi) public gestures which incite hatred;
 - (vii) posters or stickers in a public place that incite hatred.
- (d) The following is unlikely to be Vilification:
- (i) a fair report of someone else's act of hatred (unless extra material has been added which is vilifying);
 - (ii) discussions or debates about racial or religious issues, done "reasonably and in good faith"; or
 - (iii) material used in parliament, courts, tribunals or other government inquiries.

7 Sexual Harassment

- (a) Sexual harassment occurs if:
- (i) a person makes an unwelcome sexual advance or unwelcome request for sexual favours to a Volunteer or Member, or engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the Volunteer or Member which makes them feel offended, humiliated and/or intimidated; and

- (ii) a reasonable person, having regard to the circumstances, would have anticipated the possibility that the Volunteer or Member would be offended, humiliated or intimidated.
- (b) Sexual harassment is not behaviour that is based on mutual attraction, friendship or respect.
- (c) Sexual harassment may include (without limitation):
 - (i) unwelcome physical touching, e.g. touching, kissing or embracing, patting or pinching;
 - (ii) unnecessary familiarity, e.g. deliberately brushing against a person;
 - (iii) sexual or suggestive comments, jokes, name calling or taunts;
 - (iv) smutty jokes or comments;
 - (v) unwelcome requests for sex;
 - (vi) staring or leering at a person or parts of their body;
 - (vii) touching or fiddling with a person's clothing, e.g. lifting up skirts or shirts, flicking bra straps or putting hands in someone's pockets;
 - (viii) sending explicit or sexually suggestive emails, texts or other communications;
 - (ix) the display of sexual material (such as photos, pin-ups or pictures) or reading matter (such as e-mails, faxes or letters); or
 - (x) asking intrusive questions about someone's personal life, including their sex life.
- (d) The behaviour does not have to be repeated or ongoing to constitute sexual harassment.
- (e) The behaviour also does not need to be deliberately intended to be offensive to constitute sexual harassment.
- (f) A person has the right to complain about sexual harassment even if the behaviour was not specifically directed at them. Conduct of a sexual nature includes making a statement of a sexual nature to a Volunteer or Member, or in their presence, and can be both oral and written statements.
- (g) Some sexual harassment, such as sexual assault, indecent exposure and stalking is also a criminal offence.

8 Bullying

- (a) Bullying is repeated behaviour of a Volunteer or Member (or group of Volunteers or Members) connected with the QUTLS, which may be considered by a reasonable person to intimidate, offend, degrade, threaten or humiliate another Volunteer or Member.
- (b) Behaviours that may be regarded as workplace bullying, if the behaviour is repeated or occurs as part of a pattern of behaviour, may include (without limitation):
 - (i) shouting, screaming or using offensive language;
 - (ii) repeated threats of dismissal or other severe punishment for no reason;
 - (iii) ridicule or derisive comments;
 - (iv) leaving offensive messages on email or the telephone;
 - (v) sabotaging a person's work, for example, by deliberately withholding or supplying incorrect information, hiding documents or equipment, not passing on messages and getting a person into trouble in other ways;
 - (vi) assigning meaningless tasks unrelated to the job;
 - (vii) maliciously excluding and isolating a person from QUTLS activities;
 - (viii) persistent and unjustified criticisms, often about petty, irrelevant or insignificant matters;
 - (ix) humiliating a person through gestures, sarcasm, criticism and insults; or
 - (x) spreading gossip or false, malicious rumours about a person.
- (c) Bullying does not include reasonable management action (including, without limitation, provision of feedback about performance, performance appraisals or actions taken to discipline or dismiss a Volunteer or Member) taken in a reasonable way by the QUTLS Management Committee in connection with the Volunteer or Member's engagement with the QUTLS.
- (d) Bullying is not low level conflict or a difference of opinion.
- (e) QUTLS aims to prevent and control bullying by:
 - (f) making Volunteers and Members aware of this policy, and if required, providing additional training;
 - (g) the reasonable provision of support to any Volunteer or Member who experiences bullying;
 - (h) promptly investigating complaints of bullying; and
 - (i) taking appropriate disciplinary action against any Volunteer or Member who bullies another Volunteer or Member.

9 Grievance Procedures

(a) This procedure applies to complaints of:

- (i) Discrimination;
- (ii) Sexual Harassment;
- (iii) Vilification;
- (iv) Victimisation;
- (v) Bullying;
- (vi) actions which create an unsafe environment; or
- (vii) actions which the management committee deems to be in breach of the QUTLS Constitution or QUTLS By-laws (Complaints).

(b) QUTLS recognises that Complaints may be complex, sensitive and potentially volatile. This Procedure aims to ensure that both the Complainant and the Respondent are treated with respect and dignity.

(c) QUTLS aims to deal with Complaints as quickly as possible and to keep the issues confidential as far as possible.

(d) QUTLS encourages informal resolution of Complaints wherever possible. However, QUTLS recognises that there may be circumstances that require formal investigation.

(e) QUTLS takes all genuine Complaints seriously and expects Complaints to be made in good faith.

(f) If a Complaint is made in good faith but is later found to be unsubstantiated then this will not be taken to be a vexatious Complaint. A vexatious Complaint is one which is made solely to make life difficult for the person the Complaint is about and which is made knowing that there is insufficient substance to back it up.

Informal procedures

Complainant action

(a) If they feel comfortable doing so, a Complainant may informally raise their concerns with the Respondent by:

- (i) clearly and assertively stating to the person that the comments made or behaviour engaged in them feel uncomfortable and that they want it to stop happening; or
- (ii) talking or writing to the Respondent/s stating that the behaviour is unacceptable and asking them to stop engaging in that behaviour.

Director or Management Committee action

(b) A Complainant may discuss their Complaint with their Director or with the Management Committee.

(c) If the Complainant wishes to take the matter further, the Director may ask the Management Committee to become involved, at which time at least 2 members of the Management Committee will meet with the Complainant to discuss:

- (i) the detail and circumstances of the complaint/s; and
- (ii) what resolution the Complainant is seeking.

(d) The Management Committee will advise the Complainant of:

- (i) the procedures set out in this Policy and the options for resolution available under this Policy; and
- (ii) any alternate resolution options, for example raising a grievance with the QUT Faculty of Law.

(e) The Management Committee may deal with the Complaint in a manner that they feel is appropriate in the circumstances which may include (but is not limited to):

- (i) speaking to the Respondent informally and attempting to resolve the issue without the complaint requiring more formal investigation;

The Complainant's allegations will be relayed verbally to the Respondent/s and the Respondent will be advised that it is an informal meeting. The Respondent will be told what the Complainant is seeking out of the process and will be asked if they think that this can be achieved. The Respondent will be asked for their response to the Complaint, but this will not be a formal response nor will any formal investigation be undertaken. Any response given to the Complaint will be used solely for the purposes of assisting the Complainant and Respondent to move forward and resolve their differences. The Management Committee members may make notes of the discussions with the Complainant and the Respondent and will keep a copy of these notes for their own reference. Both the Complainant and the Respondent are also free to make their own notes during the process.

(ii) conducting a 'team talk' with the relevant portfolio or QUTLS Committee focussed on discrimination, harassment and/or bullying.

During that talk, the Management Committee may advise the team that concerns have been raised regarding discrimination, harassment and/or bullying and emphasise how seriously QUTLS treats such concerns. The Management Committee may reiterate the contents of this Policy and state that any such behaviour will not be tolerated and must cease immediately. This team talk can be conducted without the Complainant or the Respondent being identified.

Relevant examples might be given during the team talk to increase the likelihood that the types of behaviour which have created problems are clearly flagged as needing to stop in the future.

Mediation

(f) Where the options discussed above are not suitable or have been unsuccessful, the Complainant and the Respondent may be asked by QUTLS to attend mediation with a neutral third party mediator.

This may be a particularly useful option where the Complainant and the Respondent work together closely. Although the Complainant and the Respondent might initially feel awkward about attending mediation, there is often real value in clearing the air and making sure that both the Complainant and the Respondent are comfortable with one another in future. If both parties agree, then the Management Committee will arrange the mediation process. The mediation will not be about apportioning blame or making findings of misconduct. It will be about agreeing on expectations, moving forward and attempting to mend any past hurts or distress.

The mediator will make confidential notes of the mediation process. These notes will be provided to the Management Committee when the mediation is concluded and will include details of those who attended the mediation and dates when the mediation occurred. If the mediation is unsuccessful, then the Complainant may wish to proceed to a formal Complaint.

Confidentiality

(g) Any genuine Complaints will be dealt with promptly, confidentially and impartially by QUTLS.

(h) In order to properly deal with a Complaint and ensure the health and safety of its Volunteers and Members, QUTLS will likely need to raise the matter with the Respondent and any potential witnesses. The Respondent and witnesses will be required to keep the matter confidential where possible.

Serious complaints

(a) There may be Complaints regarding behaviour that are so serious that the Complaint cannot be dealt with appropriately through informal procedures.

(b) If a Complainant makes a Complaint about serious behaviour that may affect the health and safety of Volunteers or Members, the Management Committee will:

(i) ensure that the Complainant is physically well and depending on the nature of the serious behaviour assist the Complainant to report the matter:

(A) to QUT in accordance with the MOPP; or

(B) the police for behaviour involving an alleged criminal offence;

If the Complainant needs medical treatment or wants the police to be involved, then this must be arranged as quickly as possible.

(ii) For serious behaviour which is not at the degrees of significance which requires referral to QUT or the police in accordance with the above clause, take steps to obtain full details of the incident from the Complainant.

The Complainant must be allowed to have a support person with them if they wish to do so.

(c) In these cases, QUTLS must balance its respect for the Complainant's privacy and confidentiality against its obligations to afford procedural fairness to all relevant parties and to ensure that there is no unreasonable risk to the health, safety and wellbeing of the Complainant and other Volunteers or Members.

Formal procedure

- (a) If a Complaint cannot be resolved informally or if informal procedures are not appropriate in the circumstances, then the formal procedure may be used (except in circumstances where the matter is referred to QUT or the police, in which case QUTLS will take no further steps to investigate the complaint but will provide the necessary assistance to support that external process).
- (b) A Complainant may discuss the matter with a member of the Management Committee to assist in determining whether the issue should be addressed through an informal or formal procedures.
- (c) The Management Committee will determine the most appropriate method for addressing the Complaint having regard to the Complainant's preferences.
- (d) If a Complaint is made by or against a member of the Management Committee, that member of the Management Committee will recuse themselves from managing or deciding any outcome in any grievance resolution process that occurs.

Conflict of interest

- (e) The Management Committee aims to perform its duties in accordance with this Policy and apply this Policy equally and fairly to all parties to the Complaint.
- (f) It is recognised that the QUTLS is a small community in which the Management Committee will often have close relationships with Volunteers and/or Members.
- (g) When a Complaint is made, each member of the Management Committee will consider if they have a conflict of interest. Examples of a conflict of interest include but are not limited to where a Management Committee member is good friends with a party, is dating a party or otherwise may not be able to comply with clause (e) above.
- (h) Where the Management Committee members identifies a possible conflict of interest, they will declare the possible conflict in writing to the other members of the Management Committee and advise whether they consider this precludes them from performing their duties under this Policy. The 3 other members of the Management Committee will decide, by simple majority, whether it is appropriate for the Management Committee member declaring the conflict of interest to recuse themselves from managing or deciding any outcome in any grievance resolution process that occurs.
- (i) Where more than one member of the QUTLS is required to recuse themselves from their duties under this Policy, the remaining members of the Management Committee will perform the duties of the Management Committee under this Policy.

Complaint

- (j) A formal Complaint must be made to the Secretary of the QUTLS. Where the Complaint is about the Secretary, the formal Complaint may be made to the President of the QUTLS.
- (k) The Complaint should be made in writing and:
 - (i) identify the Respondent;
 - (ii) provide the specific details about the Complaint; and
 - (iii) specify the outcome sought by the Complainant.
- (l) The Complaint may be made verbally to the Management Committee. If provided verbally, the Management Committee member taking the Complaint must record the Complaint in writing. The Complaint must be signed by the Complainant.

Initial consideration

- (m) The Management Committee may:
 - (i) obtain further details of the allegations from the Complainant; and/or
 - (ii) conduct an initial assessment about the allegation including:
 - (A) confirming details of possible Volunteers, Members other witnesses who are alleged to have witnessed the incident/s; and
 - (B) consider whether the nature of the allegations is behaviour which is prohibited under this policy; and
 - (C) make any further initial enquires necessary to form a view about how to progress the complaint.
- (n) If the Management Committee determines from conducting the initial assessment that the allegations:
 - (i) lacks sufficient particulars to establish any basis for an investigation; or

- (ii) do not amount to potential Discrimination, Vilification, Victimisation, Harassment, Bullying or otherwise in breach of this Policy, then the Management Committee must reject the Complaint and must advise the Complainant as soon as possible that:
- (iii) the Complaint has been rejected; and
- (iv) the grounds upon which the complaint has been rejected.
- (o) Otherwise, the Management Committee must determine that the Complaint will be progressed and should; advise the Complainant:
 - (i) that the Complaint will be progressed to be formally investigated; and
 - (ii) the next steps.
- (p) The Management Committee must assess the seriousness of the allegations, the number of Volunteers and/or Members involved and the seniority of the Respondent and determine whether to involve an independent expert to assist with the investigation.

Response

- (q) If the Management Committee does not reject the Complaint (as outlined above), the Respondent must be provided with details of the allegations against them. This may be in writing or by way of a meeting with the Management Committee. The Respondent does not need to be provided with a full copy of the Complaint however they must be provided with sufficient information to enable them to respond to the Complaint.
- (r) The Respondent must be asked to respond to the allegations and to give their version of events.
- (s) The Management Committee or Respondent may request a subsequent meeting to obtain or provide further details in response to the Complaint. The Respondent may wish to take notes to the meeting to assist them in responding.
- (t) The Respondent may provide a written response to the allegations if they wish to do so. However, the Respondent must also meet with the Management Committee as required.

Investigation

- (u) Once a response is obtained from the Respondent, the Management Committee must identify any other information required in order to complete the investigation. This may involve interviewing witnesses and gathering documents and other evidence.
- (v) If other people are alleged to have witnessed the interactions between the Complainant and the Respondent, then these witnesses must be named by the Complainant and the Respondent.
- (w) If the Management Committee determines it is appropriate, they will speak with those witnesses to obtain their version of events, unless impracticable to do so.
- (x) The Complainant and the Respondent must not discuss the issues with the witnesses.
- (y) All witnesses should be asked to sign a confidentiality undertaking.
- (z) Once all relevant evidence has been collected and considered, the Management Committee should request any further necessary information from either the Complainant or the Respondent. Further meetings may be held with either or both the Complainant and the Respondent if necessary to clarify any outstanding points.

Report

- (aa) The Management Committee must produce a report setting out:
 - (i) the allegations;
 - (ii) the relevant evidence;
 - (iii) the findings, including whether the Complaint is substantiated or not; and
 - (iv) any recommended further action, including disciplinary action, based on the findings of the report and in consideration of clause 6 Discipline of this Policy.
- (bb) The report will be put to the Management Committee to consider. The Management Committee will, by a simple majority vote, decide any further action to be taken.
- (cc) The findings of the report will be provided to the Complainant and the Respondent. Neither party will be provided with a full copy of the report unless QUTLS is required to provide a copy by law.

Confidentiality

- (dd) Both the Complainant and the Respondent must treat the Complaint as completely confidential.
- (ee) The Complainant and the Respondent may need to talk to close family and friends about the issues and are encouraged to rely on these sources of support.
- (ff) However, the Complainant and the Respondent must not make any statements that a Complaint has been made or statements about the behaviour which has been complained of or otherwise discuss the issues with other QUTLS Volunteers, Members, QUT staff, Sponsors, industry stakeholders or other QUTLS contacts.
